

Capewell Supports Help for Heroes – Running for a Cause

Edinburgh, UK, May 31, 2009 – Members of the UK Aerial Delivery Test Team, WO1 Bob Hoskins and Major Alex Atherton (pictured below), donned Capewell t-shirts as they participated in the 2009 Edinburgh Marathon. Both runners completed the 26 mile 3.5 hour endurance race in support of the Help for Heroes charity.

Help for Heroes is a non-profit organization established to help the service men & women of the UK Armed Forces who have been wounded or injured in the line of duty.
<http://www.helpforheroes.org.uk/>

